Protection of the privacy of our website users is a priority for us, in particular, during processing of the personal data they leave on this website.

All personal information you leave on this website shall be processed only with your consent thereto and as prescribed by the law on personal data protection. The processing aims at feedback provision to the users and responding to their questions and inquiries, as well as mailing out of information messages in case they have expressed their wish to get them.

We process only the personal data that is necessary for this, viz.: names of users, their contact information, and information about their place of employment. Additional information can be provided by the users upon their discretion in the content of the messages they leave on the website as well as in attached files, but the Centre does not demand provision of any other information.

The Centre shall take all the necessary technical and organizational steps to protect personal data and the process of their processing, that are envisaged by the legislation.

The personal data of the users shall not be handed over to any third persons, but for the cases envisaged by legislation.

The Centre shall not collect and shall not process sensitive categories of personal data of users via this website. Any attempts to collect such categories of personal data on behalf of the Centre shall be illegal and shall have nothing to do with the activity of the Centre and the operation of this website.

While using the website, the Centre shall not collect cookie files about the behaviour of users on the website and shall not process them.

The users whose personal data is processed shall be entitled to know about their personal data processing and get access to it, object to its processing, demand from the Organization to change, clarify, or remove it, or to be informed about the loss or leakage of personal data within 72 hours from the time the fact is traced.

The Centre shall process personal data only within the period necessary for communication with the user or for achievement of another legitimate goal, but not beyond the period envisaged by the personal data protection legislation.

On any issues related to personal data processing, please, write to the e-mail address info@dc.org.ua
